Update: Since the increased traffic enforcement in early May, the Abilene Police Dept. Traffic Patrols have issued 176 citations for various traffic violations throughout Various Abilene streets. This enforcement is an effort to help curb driving habits in our community and help streets become safer.

APD Stepping Up Traffic Enforcement

ABILENE, TX – The Abilene Police Department will begin an increased traffic enforcement operation beginning Friday, May 7, 2021. Officers with the Traffic Division will be patrolling high-traffic areas to help decrease traffic violations including speeding. This operation is the first in a series of operations on the streets of Abilene over the next several months. The Department would like drivers to comply with traffic laws to help keep our streets safe.

Respectfully,

Rick Tomlin
Public Information Coordinator
