Arrest of former Abilene Police Officer

ABILENE, TX – The Abilene Police Department is aware of the arrest made today of former police officer Thaddeus Jason Haak. The Texas Department of Public Safety - Texas Ranger Division conducted the investigation. The arrest involves charges related to an incident where a current member of the Department is a victim in the investigation. We will provide all appropriate support to our employee.

The allegations against Mr. Haak are disturbing. The Department thanks the Texas Ranger Division for their independent investigation of the incident. Due to this being their investigation, all questions pertaining to the charges and arrest should be directed to the Department of Public Safety.

Respectfully,

Lt. Gerald Moran
Executive Officer to the Chief
