DUCK, DUCK, GOOSE

Children sit in circle. One person is "It" and walks around outside of circle touching other children on heads. As they touch each head, they say "Duck, duck..." When they are ready, they say, "Goose!" The person they touch when they say "Goose" must jump up and chase "It" around the circle. "It" must make it around circle and sit in empty space before Goose catches him. If "It" does not make it around, he sits in the middle of the circle (the goose pot) for the next round.

SONG

LITTLE DUCK (to tune of "Yankee Doodle")

Once there was a little duckling
Who was always la-ate
His mother had to quack at him
Because he made her wait

Hurry don't be late.
Quack, quack, quack, quack, quack, quack, quack
Don't make you mother wait!
