Structure Fire: 1300 block of Pecan

At approximately 9:00 a.m. on November 26, 2022 the Abilene Fire Department responded to a residential structure fire located in the 1300 block of Pecan St. Units arrived to find heavy smoke coming from the single-family residence. The two occupants were outside the structure. The fire was quickly brought under control and extinguished but caused significant damage to the interior of the home. The occupants were unharmed and the American Red Cross were contacted to provide assistance. The cause of the fire is currently under investigation. Damages are estimated at $10,000.
