Two Arrested After Drug Deal in North Abilene

ABILENE, TX – Abilene Police arrested two suspects in north Abilene after a drug deal at a north Abilene apartment complex. Aaron McVea (28), and Demarques Taylor (27) were arrested by Patrol officers shortly after a drug transaction which took place at an apartment complex in north Abilene just after 3 p.m. Detectives witnessed a possible drug transaction and Patrol initiated a traffic stop shortly thereafter. McVea was found with 14 grams of marijuana, 37 grams of meth and over $3,100 in cash. Taylor had a smaller amount of marijuana in his possession. A third suspect was also arrested on outstanding warrants. McVea remains at the Taylor County Jail. Abilene Police Street Crimes Unit and Patrol assisted in the arrests.
