Robbery Suspect Arrested

ABILENE, TX – The Abilene Police Department Street Crimes Unit arrested an 18 year old male suspected of a string of robberies while he wore disguises and riding a bike to and from the scene of the crimes.

Utassius Arberry (18 yrs.), was captured on September 14, while attempting to rob a north side Abilene grocery store. Members of the APD Street Crimes Unit and Patrol helped set up surveillance on Arberry. He was captured without incident and transported to the Taylor County Jail.

Between August 26th and September 5th, an unknown Black male robbed three Abilene businesses at gunpoint in the daytime hours. The suspect was eventually identified as 18 yr. old Utassius Arberry. He is currently at the Taylor County Jail charged with three counts of First Degree Felony Aggravated Robbery and one count of Second Degree Felony Attempted Aggravated Robbery. His bonds total $105,000.

Utassius Arberry

Respectfully,

Rick Tomlin
