Abilene Police Department Hires Records Supervisor

ABILENE, TX – The Abilene Police Department is proud to announce the promotion of Aymee Ornellas to Records Supervisor. Aymee has been working as a Customer Services Representative in the Records Division since June of 2014. With this promotion, Aymee will be a first line supervisor in Records and will help oversee the Department's transition to a new Records Management System. The Records Division is responsible for typing all reports and narratives generated by officers, as well as releasing records to the public.

Aymee was born and raised in California and also has family in Texas. Aymee made Abilene home in 2008 and she worked as a pharmacy technician prior to joining Records. She very much enjoys her job with the Abilene Police Department. Her hobbies include reading, sci-fi movies, and rooting for her favorite hockey and rugby teams.
