New Addition at the Melvin Martin Center for Children's Safety

ABILENE, TX – The Abilene Police Department along with First Abilene Federal Credit Union invites our community out to the ribbon cutting of a new structure at the Melvin Martin Center for Children's Safety (Safety City). The new building is a replica of a credit union and replaces an outdated structure. Cost of the new construction was donated entirely by First Abilene FCU for the benefit of children and parents to enjoy. It features the main building and a seating area with picnic tables for enjoyment of refreshments. The ribbon cutting will be held on Thursday, August 15, at 9 a.m. on the campus of Safety City, 2601 S. 7th St.

"We thank First Abilene Federal Credit Union for making a commitment to help the children in Abilene and surrounding area learn about safety" - Chief Standridge.

Stan Standridge, Chief of Police | 4565 South First | Abilene, TX | 79605
