FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 27, 2015

Body found in north Abilene positively identified

UPDATE: Preliminary autopsy results for Latisha Hilley show that she died as a result of a single gunshot wound to the head. CID is continuing to work this as a homicide. Police are asking anyone with any information to call Abilene Crime Stoppers 676-TIPS (8477). This is an ongoing investigation and no other information will be released at this time.

ABILENE TX- The name of the female found deceased in north Abilene on Sunday, July 26, 2015 has been confirmed to be Latisha Hilley of Abilene, DOB 10/16/75. At approximately 3:00 p.m., APD responded to a deceased subject call near the intersection of Pine and Summit in far North Abilene. The deceased female was located by two citizens riding an ATV on a dirt trail in a nearby wooded area. CID Detectives were called to the scene and have begun an investigation. The case will be treated as a homicide until a cause and manner of death can be scientifically established through autopsy. The decedent was transported to the Tarrant County Medical Examiner's Office for that purpose.
