Abilene Outdoor Adventures

ABILENE, Texas – Join the City of Abilene Parks and Recreation for Abilene Outdoor Adventures on Saturday, June 3 at Grover Nelson Park. Families will have multiple opportunities to learn about outdoor recreational opportunities in the Big Country as well as environmental conservation, stewardship, and wellness.

Come test fishing skills and knowledge by participating in angler education and fishing for catfish, connect with nature through wildlife and plant education activities, test archery and air rifle skills and explore camping, geocaching, kayaking, family friendly activities and so much more! Visit the registration table and sign up for door prizes including a Yeti Cooler.

The first 1,000 youngsters will get a free same day ticket good for child's admission, with a paying adult, to the Abilene Zoo. The Abilene Zoo will have featured events from 10 AM - 2 PM included with admission.

Abilene Outdoor Adventures will kick off at 9 AM and end at 5 PM with Food Trucks on site all day. The event is sponsored by the following: City of Abilene Parks and Recreation, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, The Abilene Zoo, Keep Abilene Beautiful, Big Country Texas Master Naturalists, and several other community groups. Come out and discover the outdoors one adventure at a time!
