City of Abilene Warns Citizens of Scam

ABILENE, Texas - The City of Abilene would like to warn citizens of a recent scam affecting the citizens of Abilene. The scammers are contacting citizens asking to enroll in a health insurance program and attempting to acquire personal health information while masking their telephone number with that of the City of Abilene.

The City of Abilene would like to remind citizens that they would never contact you asking for personal information.

Please be advised that the best defense against a scam of this nature is public awareness. At any time, if you are contacted and prompted to provide personal information, the best practice is to never share your personal information over the phone.
